Lo, children are an heritage of the LORD: and the fruit of the womb is his reward. As arrows are in the hand of a mighty man; so are children of the youth. Happy is the man that hath his quiver full of them: they shall not be ashamed, but they shall speak with the enemies in the gate. Psalm 127:3-5

“DOORS WON’T ALWAYS OPEN”

“And they that were ready went in with him to the marriage: and the door was shut.” – Matthew 25:10

I am reminded of something that happened to me many years ago. I was attending the Pastor’s Conference in Jacksonville, Florida. It was a large conference with thousands of other ministers and family from all over the world. There were probably 20 or more folks from the Petersburg Baptist Association in that group.

We all stayed at the same hotel and a charter bus picked us up each morning to take us to First Baptist Church, Jacksonville, where the conference was taking place.

On this particular morning, one of the pastors from one of our PBA churches was standing in front of the door that led to where the bus was waiting. He was waving his hand above his head while facing the door. He just kept doing it. Finally, I asked, “What are you doing?” He said, “the electric eye that triggers the door must not be working.” I began to laugh and walked up and pushed the door open and got on the bus. It was NOT an electric door.

We like negotiable doors. If a door sticks, we are glad if an extra push opens it. If a door is locked, we’re glad to have a key that opens it. We like friendly doors too. But some doors will stop us in our tracks.

The parable of the five foolish virgins tells us that despite their pleas to enter, the door remained shut. The parable reminds us that God will someday close the door with absolute finality. The closing of Heaven’s door will be the most momentarily dreadful event ever to occur.

What are we doing to assure our family, our neighbors, our friends, will enter through the door? The role of the Petersburg Baptist Association is to assist you in your endeavor to fulfill the Great Commission, when asked. Let us work together for the cause of Christ.

Let’s enjoy the month of June and all that it brings.

Pastor Fred
